

OWC at Techfluence

September 19, 2020

By George Harding

Tucson Computer Society

OWC (Other World Computing) presented three products, each of which is interesting.

Travel Dock: This is a compact source for connectivity wherever you are. It has HDMI, SD card reader, USB-C and two USB 3.1 ports. I comes with aa USB-C Cable and includes a handy cable storage spot. Only $55.

See

<https://www.owcdigital.com/products/usb-c-travel-dock>

Mercury Elite Pro Dual with 3-Port Hub: Includes a dual RAID drive, using 2.5 inch SSDs or 3.5 inch HDDs to bring storage capacity to as much as 32TB. Includes a USB-C port and two USB-3.2 A ports. Price from $149 to $1,199.

See

<https://www.owcdigital.com/products/mercury-elite-pro-dual-usb-c>

for technical details.

See

https://www.amazon.com/Mercury-Elite-Pro-Dual-USB-C/dp/B08GPD21K8/ref=sr_1_10?dchild=1&keywords=mercury%2Belite%2Bpro%2Bdual%2BOWC&qid=1600798993&sr=8-10&th=1

for configuration options and prices.

Envoy PRO EX: A smaller storage device with capacity up to 2TB. Price $99 to $899.

See

<https://www.owcdigital.com/products/envoy-pro-ex>

for technical details.

See

https://www.amazon.com/OWC-Envoy-External-Storage-Solution/dp/B07T812T93/ref=sr_1_5?dchild=1&keywords=envoy+pro+ex&qid=1600799671&sr=8-5

for configuration options and prices